8) Week 3 Vocabulary Part A

I have used 5 vocabulary words in a sentence. Use the context clues in each sentence to remember the definition and write it down. If you are still having trouble remembering, use your notes.

1. We totally annihilated that final boss in the game last night. He had no chance of survival!
2. My sunburn was hot and it stung but the balmy breeze at sunset helped to soothe it.
3. The army caught the renegade that betrayed them. He would pay for helping the other side.
4. The young girl performed admirably in her first choir concert. It was obvious she was nervous, but she stayed strong and sung beautifully.
5. The school track is in the shape of an ellipse to fit around the long rectangular football field.
